To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Law (General) Department.

Madras.

Sir,

The existing Panchayat Court at Mulur in the Mangalore Taluk of this District has jurisdiction over a group of seven villages, as shown in the enclosed notification No.I. This grouping has caused considerable hardship and inconvenience to the residents of some of the villages as the President holds court in his own village, the most northerly of them all. It is, therefore, proposed to abolish the present Court and to constitute two new Courts by regrouping the villages as shown in Notification No.II. One court will be located at Mulur, where a Government building is available and the other at Muduperar in a private building. These proposals may be sanctioned to have effect from 1-5-1928 and the notifications approved.

Your obedient servant,

Collector.

U.S. 16-1-28.
